Academic Foci

Academic Focus: Education

The Education academic focus is geared towards students interested in pursuing majors in teaching for K-6, 4-8 Middle School, PreK-3 and Special Education (K-12). Students interested in teaching high school, need to select the content area they want to teach as their major and add an education minor. The majors in this Focus are housed in the Martha Dickerson Ericksson College of Education. The Education academic focus pathway consists primarily of courses that complete your requirements in these majors and also complete your general education core courses. Even if you change your academic focus, you are completing requirements towards your degree, but some courses may be electives.
