AACRAO PRACTICE GUIDANCE - COVID-19
aacrao.org/covidguidance

Related guidance endorsing alternative practices for institutions in times of crisis
- Clear communication to stakeholders
- Transparency of practice to stakeholders
- Consistency or approach and in application of practice
- Acting in the best interest of the student

Application of AACRAO guidance ensures appropriate balance between protection of institutional integrity and support of student success
COVID-19 Impact Practice Snapshot Surveys

#1 Grading and transcript practices and commencement plans (released April 3)

#2 Undergraduate enrollment indicators, admission practice, and fall course delivery (released April 10)

#3 Transfer credit evaluation, official transcript receipt and delivery, fall term start date plans (released April 17)

#4 Update on the previous topics (released May 22)
Highlights of the COVID Impact Survey #4 (n=376)

- MOST institutions remain undecided on their course delivery choices for fall.
- Enrollment indicators in this survey are similar to those reported in the beginning of April.
- 65% not already confirmed for fully online for fall 2020 are asking their faculty to be prepared to teach fully online.
- 14% are considering changes in tuition for the fall.
- About 1 in 5 have social distancing measures in already in place or selected for fall.
- More report considering various changes to the fall calendar start and end dates and session length than in mid-April.
Meetings lately are mostly like this:

- we don’t know much
- what we do know we can’t really tell you
- everything is going to change
- given the above, please make a plan
